Head Teacher Ms. M. Mallon

27th June 2019

This week we have been really busy with some fantastic visits to Al Rahama Mosque and a local synagogue.

Our Y4 children have taken part in a sample times tables test published by the DFE this week and I must say gave it their best shot, they have been practicing their tables for a while now and are now times tables super-stars!

Great news for a number of our children this week as they have become published authors, we have had children from all year groups taking part in writing competitions over the course of the last few weeks. Some have gone on to have their work published in a book, below is Lucas's from Y2
