This week on 11th February it was National Internet Safety Day. At Wellesbourne we have been taking part in activities to do with online safety. Miss Parr, our ICT teacher has provided us with this handy check list so that you can sit with your parents and support each other in staying safe online.

Online safety checklist

Complete this checklist with your parents or caregivers to help you stay safe on your devices!

- I only play games that are appropriate for my age group.
- I use a username that doesn't give away my identity.
- I have a limit to my daily/weekly screen time.
- I know what to do if I see something that upsets me online.
- I have age restrictions on the things I read and watch online.
- I don't share my passwords with anyone apart from trusted adults.
- I don't post personal information online, or share photos of myself or others with people I don't know.

Today our Year 5 classes visited LFC Football Stadium to take part in some workshops on Football and Homophobia. The children had a great time and learned lots about respect, effort and cooperation, in fact all of our school values were part of the session. Well done Y5 on your fantastic behaviour and partaking well in the session.
