Dear Parents and Carers,

As a school you know that we are always trying to improve our attendance. As a result, we are sending out our term dates via this letter with a reminder that we do have two weeks over Whit Break which allows more blocked time in which to book an affordable family holiday. This will help support our school in striving to achieve the best attendance possible, please be reminded that you must avoid taking holidays during term time as these will not be authorised as per government guidelines and fines will be issued.
